MANAGEMENT COMMENT

The US 2-year sovereign rate continued its strong rise to +2.71% at the end of the month. The latest US inflation figure came in at +8.5%. The central bank has started the cycle of a hike and wants to act fast and harder. The market has already incorporated numerous rate hikes from the FED. At the same time, this rate hike cycle will impact on economic growth. Real U.S. GDP for the first quarter contracted by 1.4% yoy, below the survey of economists. The portfolio's current low duration has provided immunity to sharp rate hikes. The portfolio's yield is improving above +2.30%. The average maturity of the bonds is close to 10 months in order to limit the impact of the bonds' credit component.
