INVESTMENT UNIVERSE AND PHILOSOPHY

The fund GLOBAL LUX DETTE EMERGENTE (EUR) is a feeder fund that invests mainly in the fund Neuberger Berman Emerging Market Debt Blend Fund (the master fund). The master fund invests in sovereign and private issuer bonds issued in emerging market countries and denominated either in hard currency or in local currency. The investments denominated in hard currency refer to investments in USD, EUR, GBP, YEN and CHF. The average rating is "Investment Grade". The target allocation for emerging market bonds is 50% sovereign bonds, 25% private issuer bonds in hard currency and 25% sovereign bonds in hard currency. The fund is hedged against the US dollar.

The management is discretionary with a selection process that starts from a macroeconomic analysis and finishes with the stock choices ("Bottom-up"). The fund is diversified across strategies and geographies as well as in terms of the number of positions.

RISK PROFILE

Lower risk/potential reward

Higher risk/potential reward

The risk indicator, based on past volatility, cannot cover all types of risks to which the fund may be exposed. It is possible that the past data used does not constitute a reliable indication of the future risk profile. The category associated with this fund is not a guarantee and can evolve with time. The lowest category is not synonymous with a "riskless" investment.

PERFORMANCE

Past performance is not a guarantee of future performance, nor is it constant with time and does not constitute in any case a guarantee of future performance.

MANAGEMENT COMMENT

In February, the market indices for emerging debt all had negative performances: in local currency (-2.6% JP Morgan GBI), on debt issued in USD on government bonds (-2.2% JP Morgan EMBI), but also on corporate bonds in USD (-2.3% Ishares JP Morgan EM Corporate).

Growth forecasts are up for 2023: U.S. growth is now expected to be 0.7% in the U.S., 0.4% in the Eurozone and 4.4% in Asia. We are no longer in a recession scenario, but in a low-growth scenario in the U.S./Eurozone and in a bullish dynamic in Asia and more globally in the emerging countries. However, expectations of terminal interest rates are rising (3.4% to 3.7% in Europe, 5% to 5.4% in the United States) and could hamper the global economic recovery. In both areas, inflation is declining slightly due to inflation inertia and relative economic improvement, which complicates the task of central banks. Short rates may remain high for some time after the expected increases.

China shows willingness to promote growth and relative improvement in Europe/U.S. should continue to favor risky assets with some volatility based on inflation expectations in the developed world.
